

Education and Participation Package

Services for children, adolescents and young adults

The Education and Participation Package will support children and young people from low-income families and young adults attending school until they reach the age of 25.

- What kind of services are included?
  - Day trips and multi-day trips with the school or day-care centre
  - Equipment with personal school supplies
  - Pupil transport, if the closest school is still too far away
  - An adequate learning, if the learning objective is not achieved or the transfer is at stake
  - Allowance for lunch at school and day-care centre
  - Subsidy of membership contributions in sports, games, culture and socializing (for example contributions for the footballclub), lessons in art subjects (for example music lessons) or participation in leisure activities. Here is an age limit of 18 years.

■ Who is eligible for all these services?

Eligible are families who receive housing benefit, child allowance, benefits according to the Social Code (SGB) II or XII or under the Benefits for Asylum Seekers Act. Even families who have not received these allowance but have low income, can file an application.

■ Where can they file this application?

Recipients of benefits under the SGB II and low-income families submit their application to the job-centre.

All others turn to the Office of Children and Family Service.

More information can be obtained from the staff of the Office of Children and Family Service.
